

Newsletter 02/2010*“Hockenheim Historic – in Memory of Jim Clark“ on the advance

The “Hockenheim Historic – in Memory of Jim Clark” strengthened the media partnership with Carsablanca, an online platform for lovers of vintage cars. The popular magazine is going to inform its readers even more intensively about the event in memory of the Scottish world champion. Due to the cooperation with the new format “Im Schalensitz“, Casablanca will report directly from the Hockenheimring from 16th till 18th April 2010 several times a day. Thus, all fans of motorsports, who won't be able to take part in the event, have the opportunity to be informed on all interesting things happening at this race weekend. The web site www.carsablanca.de provides a first insight.

Even the new co-operation partner “AUTO BILD klassik“, the magazine of vintage and classic cars will accelerate concerning the coverage of the “Hockenheim Historic – in Memory of Jim Clark“. The chief editor Bernd Wieland is looking forward to the new partnership in the course of this top-class motorsports event. According to his appraisal, the event will attract an excited audience within his readership especially because the special topics perceive appeal as well. Due to the media partnership Georg Seiler, manager of the Hockenheim Ring GmbH, is optimistic about being able to inform the readers of the vintage car-magazine on the special features of the “Hockenheim Historic – in Memory of Jim Clark” in detail. Furthermore, he emphasizes that the main focus of the event will be both on the top-class race series and the club scene.

In April 2010 Kurt Ahrens will be 70 years old. The Solitude GmbH uses the “Hockenheimring Historic – in Memory of Jim Clark“ as an opportunity to arrange a parade of honour for this impressive race driver with all cars he drove during his phenomenal career. These cars were formula junior-, formula 3-, formula 2- and formula 1 racing cars- such as sport prototypes and touring cars. Thus, all owners of “Kurt Ahrens-cars“ are invited to register with immediate effect. Under the heading “Veranstaltungen“, the following web site provides a list showing the cars that are accepted for participation as well as an application form: www.solitude-gmbh.de.

Even the race classes have already been determined. There will be a “Historical Formula One Championship-race“ and the participants of the “Historical Formula 2“, the formula-junior-drivers of the “FiA Lurani Trophy“ and the drivers of the “NEC Formula Renault 2.0“ as well as the “Historical Formula V“ are fighting for some championship points. Furthermore, an impressive spectrum of
